

English:

Write a set of instructions using imperative verbs
Listen and respond to a story - Ants in your Pants
Hot seating and paired retelling of the story
Create own version of the story by changing character/setting
Write simple sentences and extended sentences
Poetry - create word banks/ write minibeast poem/ perform poems to each other

Maths:

Recognise, write and partition 2-digit numbers
Double and halve numbers to 20
Find a half/quarter of a shape, amount and quantity
Understand related addition and subtraction facts within 20
Solve missing number problems
Interpret and solve one step word problems

Music:

Use voices creatively by singing songs and chants.

PE:

Rolling, receiving and aiming
Throwing and catching
Working as a team - relay games etc.

Art:

Create a collage in the style of Matisse
Creating 'stained glass' minibeasts.
Experiment using different objects and paint to create different patterns.
Collage using natural objects in the style of Anthony Goldsworthy.
Nature colour hunt to make a rainbow.

Science:

Make observations using simple equipment
Identify different minibeasts and compare their habitats
Investigate what conditions woodlice might prefer
Know what plants are and why they are important to us
Identify and name different types of plants and trees

Computing:

RMeasimaths
eSafety - Be a good friend online; understand how to behave responsibly online
Algorithms: Understand that objects can be programmed to do actions when they are clicked on.

RE: Judaism

Learning about Hanukkah
Understanding how celebrations can bring you closer to those around you or closer to God
Understanding the importance of Hanukkah for Jewish people and what it represents.