

Expressive Arts and Design

- What's at the end of the rainbow paintings
- Drama linked to the Enchanted Tree story
- Creating a collaborative display
- Exploring sounds in our story using musical instruments
- Colour mixing

Personal, Social and Emotional Education

- Learning how to keep ourselves healthy
- Exploring what it is to be a good learner
- Learning to look after each other
- Learning to work through problems
- Working together to make different things like the role-play area

Understanding of the World (linked to Science and R.E)

- Exploring celebrations around the world - Chinese New Year
- Child led investigation - How can Scarlet keep dry in the rain? Children to think of own investigation

Understanding of the World (IT)

- Logging onto the computer independently
- Navigating a simple computer program
- Creating music linked to our story
- Drawing and describing magical creatures and lands using the computer

Communication and Language

- Learning the Enchanted Tree story
- Interviewing different characters from the Enchanted Tree story
- Creating puppet shows using magical creatures

Maths

- Counting golden coins in pots at the end of the rainbow.
- Recognising numerals 1-20.
- Estimating quantities in a pot
- Ordering numbers to 20
- Reciting numbers to 100
- Ordinal numbers—1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th
- One more/less
- Pairs that make 10

Literacy

- Learning the Enchanted Tree story
- Writing challenges linked to the story
- Exploring ideas around fantasy worlds
- Describing magical creatures

Physical Development

- Enchanted wood obstacle course
- Exploring how different magical creatures might move, using dance
- Throwing and catching skills
- Exploring balancing and travelling through mat work