

Minor Incidents Flowchart

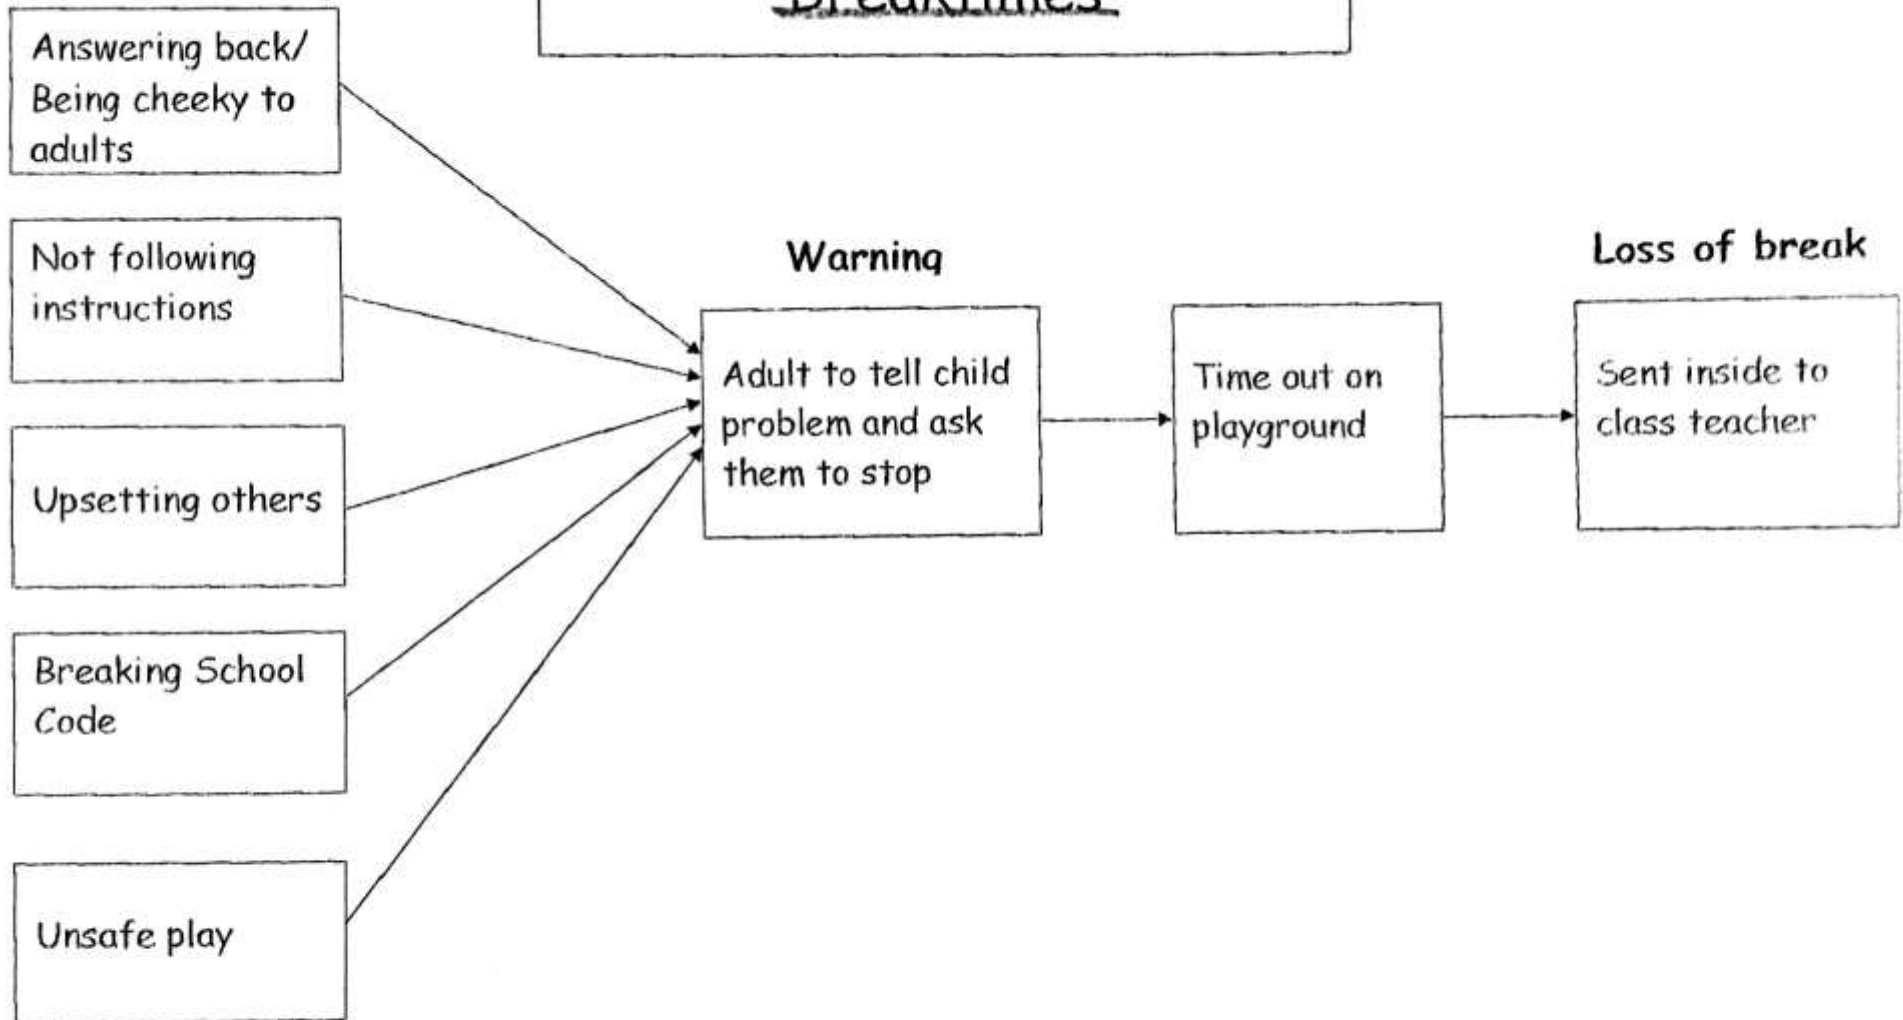

The emphasis is always on encouraging and teaching children to make approved choices and to control themselves. Younger children will progress far more slowly along the flowchart as each step may be repeated several times.

Major Incidents Flowchart

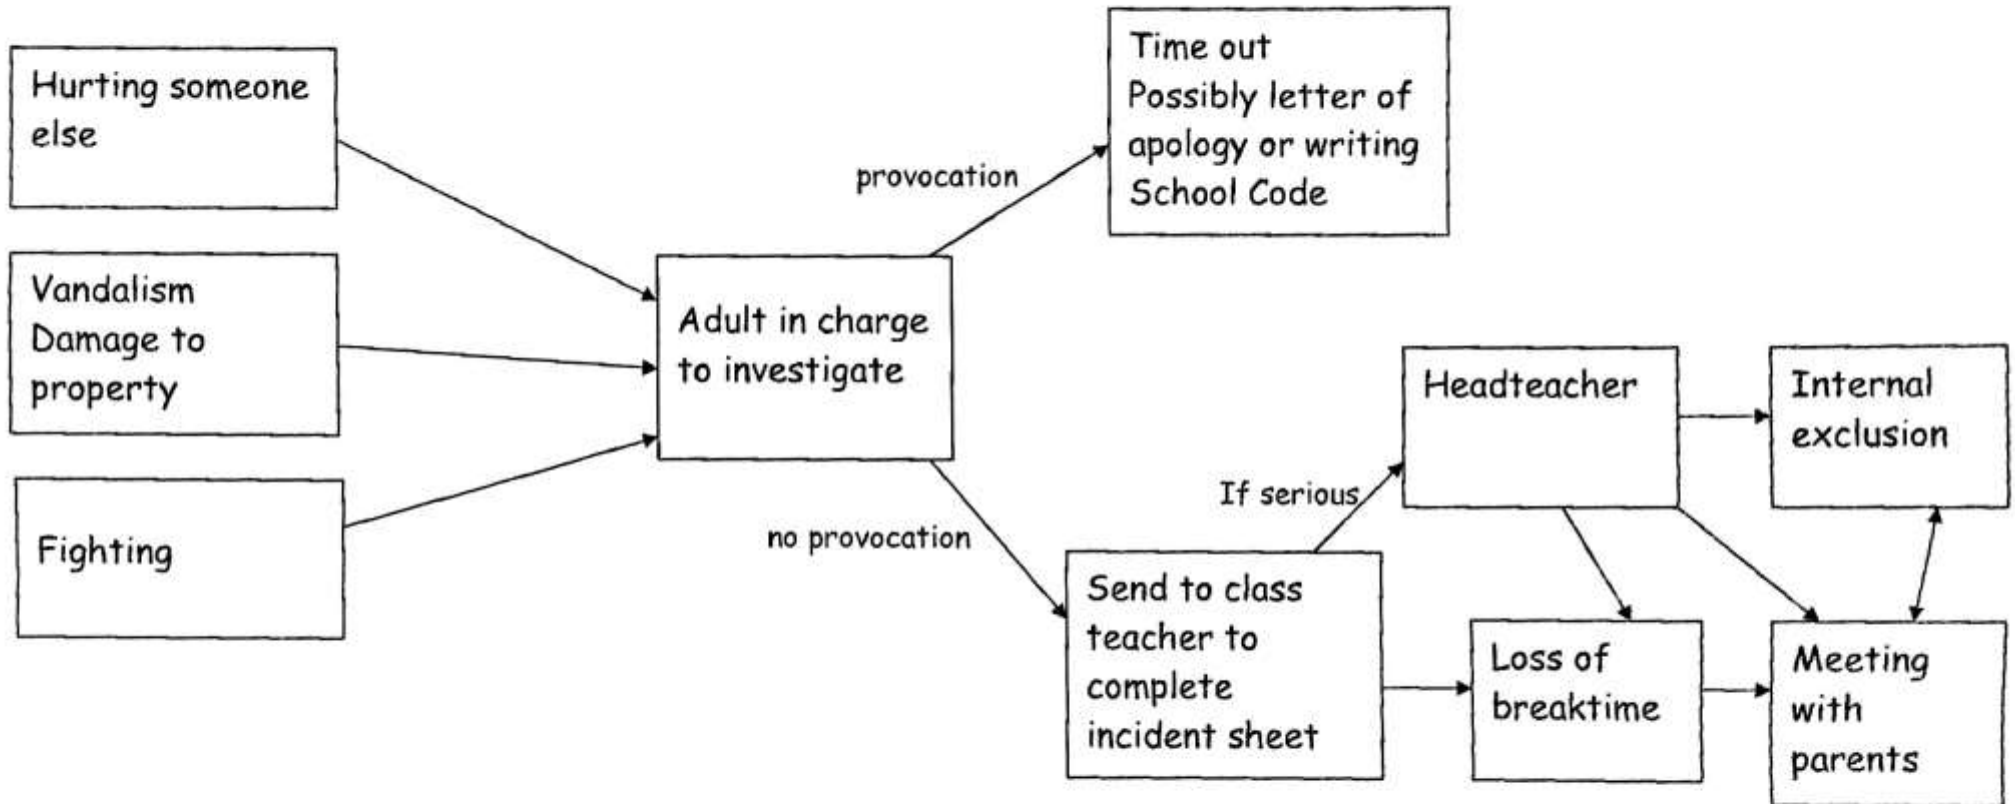

The emphasis is always on encouraging and teaching children to make approved choices and to control themselves. Younger children will progress far more slowly along the flowchart as each step may be repeated several times.

Minor Incidents Flowchart Breaktimes

The emphasis is always on encouraging and teaching children to make approved choices and to control themselves. Younger children will progress far more slowly along the flowchart as each step may be repeated several times.

Major Incidents Flowchart Breaktimes

The emphasis is always on encouraging and teaching children to make approved choices and to control themselves. Younger children will progress far more slowly along the flowchart as each step may be repeated several times.